

SMUG

THE POWER

A long time ago there was not a small seaside village, with few boats inhabited by fishermen.

A handsome young fisherman married a beautiful and a sweet young girl, whose name was Goldilocks.

Every day, at sunset, the fisherman would sit on the shore and look at the sea.

During the night, the young man was continually sad and distressed by what he saw.

The two lovers loved each other, but the young man was so sad that he was unable to love Goldilocks any more, and he decided to flee from her.

Unfortunately one day the desperate fisherman had a bad accident and dropped the beautiful girl to the bottom of the sea forever.

The young man's father, who was in need of the sea, having to see his beloved again, and already he turned into a fisherman.

The young man's father, who was in need of the sea, having to see his beloved again, and already he turned into a fisherman.

The young man's father, who was in need of the sea, having to see his beloved again, and already he turned into a fisherman.